

Social and Assistive Robots Interacting with Humans

Abstract The presentation makes an overview of the social and assistive robots and presents the solutions developed by the Artificial Intelligence and Multi-Agent Systems laboratory of UPB for active interactions of such robots with users in public places and with elderly or special needs users.